ROCKVIEW PENITENTIARY, BELLEVILLE, Pa., May 6.—Stern of face and with no outward emotion, except for a slight trembling of the lower lip, Robert Allen Edwards, 22, walked to his death in silence here today for the "American Tragedy," slaying of his unwanted sweetheart, Freda McKechnie, 27. His "steed nerves" carried him bravely over the 20 paces between his death cell and the chair in which he died at 12:34:30. Bobby Edwards looked straight at the prison chaplain as he sat in the chair at 12:31. Just before the first and only bolt of 2,000 volts struck his body, he heard the chaplain intone:

"My God have mercy upon your soul."

Debt To Society Paid.

Three and one-half minutes later his debt to society had been paid. He met his Maker with a brave heart, the Rev. Thomas Hughes of the Wilkes-Barre Baptist church which Bobby attended, stated.

"He had sinned but he had asked God's forgiveness," Rev. Hughes said. "God always forgives those who ask."

"The Lord is my shepherd," Chaplain C. F. Lauer uttered as he walked into the death chamber ahead of the condemned youth.

Bobby's eyes, sunk deep in his head, the hair of which was closely cropped, looked straight at him.

"He ledeth me beside the still waters," continued the chaplain.

It was beside the still waters of LONDON, May 6.—In a setting of almost unparalleled splendor, King George V. of England sank to his knees beneath the great dome of St. Paul's Cathedral this afternoon and bowed his head in gratitude for 25 years of successful reign.

With this fact, England and the empire ushered in the jubilee celebrations to honor his quarter-century of rule.

Senate Speeds Action On U. S. Bonus Issue

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Spurred by President Roosevelt's demand for enactment of a five-point program, the Senate today speeded action on the bonus issue to pave the way for recovery legislation.

The Senate appeared ready to approve the Vinson bill, ordering immediate cash payment at full face value of the adjusted service certificates held by World war veterans. This bill has the endorsement of the American Legion. It has been threatened with a presidential veto.

Doom Patman Bill.

Its passage by the Senate probably will insure its final approval by Congress. The house previously passed the Patman bill but preferred it to the Vinson bill only by a very narrow margin. The Senate's passage of the Vinson bill undoubtedly would doom the Patman mill.

The two measures differ slightly in terms but sharply in methods of

All was in readiness today for the Senior high school's "open house" program on Tuesday night, when three-regular 45-minute school classes—the normal seventh, eighth and ninth periods—will be conducted to acquaint parents and friends of students with high school routine.

Principal Frank L. Orth had issued to his faculty today a detailed schedule which told of the many class activities which will take place during the evening.

At 1:45 p. m. tomorrow the students of the school will be dismissed for the afternoon with instructions to report for night school at 7:30. The three classes will continue until 9:45 o'clock.

Slow Time To Prevail

Eastern Standard Time will prevail for the evening's schedule, Mr. Orth pointed out.

He announced that students taking their regular lunch in the second and third period at noon need not bring their lunches tomorrow because school will be dismissed early enough to allow them to dine at the cases before Mantz will be started.

At the close of the ninth period the public will be served tea in the gymnasium by mothers of the students, who are members of the school orchestra and band. Five hundred tables, it is estimated will be set up for the affair which is being sponsored as a benefit for the "On-to-Madison" fund of the orchestra.

"We expect tomorrow night's program to surpass similar events of the past," was the only comment Principal Orth had when asked to predict the night attendance. There will be 2,100 students in the classes not to mention the huge stream of visitors.

HARRISBURG, May 6.—Driving toward agreement with the three months old legislative fiscal deadlock, Republican senate leaders today were considering a $58,150,000 substitute program of new taxes to meet federal demands of $5,000,000 a month for relief in the next year.

Minter was made by Alderman L. C. Mantz this morning that the hearings scheduled today in the cases brought against numbers sellers and alleged proprietors of gambling establishments, who were arrested in the wholesale raids conducted Friday afternoon by Sheriff Edward C. Pritchard and state police, have been postponed.

An assignment court will be held this afternoon when the attorneys for the defendants and the prosecutors, will get together and arrange dates for the formal hearings in the different cases in the immediate future.

There were about 30 informations made before Alderman Mantz, all of whom were arraigned Friday evening, and posted bail for their appearance at a hearing this afternoon at 2 o'clock, E. S. T. None of these hearings will take place today, however. As soon as the schedule has been completed, the work of conducting the hearings in the cases before Mantz will be started.

ILLINOIS RELIEF CRISIS IS ACUTE

Federal Relief Is Not Granted

State Must Provide $3,000,000 Per Month To Get U. S. Aid

HOPE TO SPEED UP PROPER LEGISLATION

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, May 6—Pantries were bare in 51,000 Chicago and Cook county homes today.

With relief funds exhausted, an estimated 200,000 relief sufferers faced actual want.

In downstate counties the situation is equally desperate. Approximately 150,000 families in 84 of the 101 counties are dependent on private charities or local governments for food.

Demonstrations, and perhaps riots, were feared unless the situation is alleviated immediately.

Hope To Meet Situation

Gov. Henry Horner and administration leaders hoped to secure enactment of legislation designed to raise the $3,000,000 a month demanded by the federal government as Illinois' share in expenditure for poor relief.

The legislation—3 percent sales tax and a companion measure extending the sales tax to utilities—has been passed by the state senate and is expected to come up for passage in the lower house today.

"Unless the bill passes," Gov. Horner declared in Springfield, "the situation will be desperate."

ENGLAND CELEBRATES QUARTER-CENTURY REIGN OF HER KING

stores, offices and homes lost as at a magic touch their sombre, everyday appearance and blossomed forth under an endless mass of flags, garlands, banners, bunting and gigantic colored portraits of the sovereigns.

Five glittering processions, participated in by the speaker of the house of commons, the Lord Chancellor, dominion premiers and the various members of the royal family, preceded the entourage of the king and queen, whose appearance was the signal for a burst of thundering cheering from the crowds.

Notable Spectacle

To the strains of the national anthem played by a combined band of the three fighting services their majesties made the trip from the palace to the cathedral with an escort of life guards. The king's honorary aides-de-camp—including Indian potentates of fabulous wealth—followed him in their carriages, their breasts glistening with orders and jewels.

Enroute to St. Paul's the royal cortege halted near the boundary of the city of London, beyond which, according to tradition the king may not pass without consent of the Lord Mayor. Here in the presence of gorgeously robed dignitaries, the mayor handed the city's famed Elizabethan pearl sword to the king as a token of welcome.

Great Pomp

The arrival at the cathedral was in keeping with the pageantry of the day's celebrations. No ceremony in St. Paul's this century has been marked by such great pomp. Special stands were erected to accommodate the distinguished guests.

The cathedral service, in which the archbishop of Canterbury and numerous other high clergy participated, lasted more than an hour. It ended with singing of the national anthem, and a new ovation greeted the sovereigns when they returned to their carriage for the drive back to the palace.

Brilliant sunshine rewarded the populace of the metropolis, swelled by hundreds of thousands of provincials and foreigners. Great crowds waited along the processional route all night, and a dense throng stood before Buckingham Palace last evening and this morning to catch sight of their majesties.

Two such glimpses were afforded them when the king, queen and Prince of Wales appeared on balcony. Otherwise the king sought to make the affair as quiet as possible. His intentions were to be carried out tonight when, instead of a state dinner, he planned to dine out with members of the royal family.

Paul M. Cover Of Ellwood Sues Pennsylvania Power Company For $1220

Paul M. Cover of Ellwood City has filed a suit against the Pennsylvania Power Company in which he claims $1,220.56 as the result of an automobile accident. Cover claims that on March 28, 1935 he was driving north on Haig street and had reached the intersection of Madison avenue, when a car of the Pennsylvania Power Company, being driven by Robert L. Gilliland, which was going east on Madison avenue collided with his machine.

Cover's car was badly damaged, he received injuries about the right knee and head. He claims a cut on his forehead has left a permanent scar. He alleges that the accident was the fault of Gilliland, who was driving at a high and dangerous rate of speed.

Firemen Rescue Man From Creek

Necessary To Place Ladder Down Into Bed Of Stream To Save Man From Death

City firemen, working under Assistant Fire Chief James E. Thomas rescued a man known as "Bill" Davis from a watery grave in Neshannock Creek, Saturday evening, about 7:30.

Davis fell from the wall in the rear of the fire department, and was carried almost to the Jefferson Street bridge by the swirling waters. A ladder was let down from Jefferson street and he was dragged from the stream. He seemed little the worse for his ducking.

DETAIN THREE BOYS

Kenneth and William Davis and also James Daggres, all boys from North Beaver street, were detained today by city police on allegations they had been appropriating bicycles, sleds and other articles which did not belong to them. They were arrested on complaint made Saturday night by an attache of Sears, Roebuck company.

Provide Huge Supply Of Hospital Linens

One reason why 1,400 babies have been born—in Jameson Memorial Hospital—is the maternity department's adequate linen supply—2,487 pieces plus an adequate reserve supply unissued. Our Aide Society has furnished practically every stitch of this.

The amount is startling when contemplated in bulk figure of 2,487 pieces. Some might even hasten to jump at the conclusion that such a supply is excessive—unwarranted by need—and then carry that thought forward to draw hasty conclusions relating to inefficiency and prodigal wastefulness of hospital operation.

But consider just what it means. To begin with, the maternity department linens can be employed in no other department of the hospital, and no linens from other departments can be used in maternity. The supply, therefore, must provide an adequate excess reserve in active availability to meet the needs of the maximum anticipated number of mothers and babies at any given time. Available clean and sterile reserves must anticipate all possible unusual requirements as well as ordinary average needs.

The maternity family may number up to twenty mothers and twenty babies. When we speak of linens we include all the blankets—baby blankets as well as bed blankets—dresser covers, bedside table covers, tray covers, screen covers, window curtains, all kinds of towels and bed linens—things found in every home. Among items not usually provided in the home are ice bag and hot water bottle covers, instrument stand covers, a matter of 120 binders of various kinds for the department, 350 pack cases in which linens are packed for sterilization. Put it all together and it makes 2,487 pieces. Without linen supply no babies would have been born in Jameson Memorial Hospital, and so we think we are correct in contending that our work in providing these vital essentials has been rewarded—and what reward! 1,400 babies.

It's a grand feeling to take part. Enroll with us. Join up in this pleasure of service. $1.00 will do it.

Checks Boosting Orchestra Fund

School Friends Donating Tea Tomorrow And Other Events Will Help

No definite figures were available today for the growing "On-to-Madison" fund, which, school authorities and citizens hope, will send senior high school's orchestra to Madison, Wis., for the national orchestra competition later this week. The bills were to be given second reading tonight and passed finally tomorrow.

On one-year basis Republicans expected to derive $4,250,000 from a half-mill tax on each kilowatt of electricity: $1,000,000 from escheatting unclaimed bank funds: $12,500,000 from an eight per cent tax on the net income of corporations; $65,000 from extending the gross receipts tax to gas, steam heating and water companies, and $1,500,000 from taxing mileage of foreign trucks in Pennsylvania.

The $19,900,000 from these imposts, $8,250,000 from taxes on cigarettes, documents and gifts added to the $30,000,000 from personality and gasoline taxes would give $58,150,000 for the relief.

"We can never show these donors how grateful we are for their support," Principal Orth stated. He referred to the Oil City solicitation and the effort now in progress to raise $2,100 for the Madison trip.

A bake sale conducted last week netted about $60.

Other events planned as benefits for the orchestra fund are:

Tuesday evening—a benefit tea following the "open house" program at senior high.

Saturday, May 11—high school girls will sell tags on downtown streets.

Monday, May 13—benefit dance at Elks Club, being sponsored by the Elks.

Wednesday, May 15—Repeat performance of "Growing Up," senior class play, at the Cathedral.

The Vinson bill gained senate popularity after advocates of the Patman bill forced its amendment in several important features. The most important was a new provision, actually appropriating the money necessary to pay off the certificates. Previously, the Vinson bill had been merely an authorization measure and if enacted into law, congress would have had to enact a separate appropriation bill before any payments could be made.

The immediate question in the senate was a choice between the Vinson bill and the Harrison bill which is said to have presidential blessing. The Harrison bill would give the veterans less cash than either of the other measures. Its chief asset was a contention that Mr. Roosevelt would sign it, while vetoing either of the other two.

There was little doubt of the outcome. Administration leaders virtually conceded their defeat. Then, with the Vinson bill approved over the Harrison plan, the senate must choose between Vinson and Patman.

Mock Convention Of Westminster Students To Frame New Constitution

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., May 6.—A mock constitutional convention will be staged this month by students in government at Westminster College, Dr. E. B. Russell, head of the department, announces. Professors Thomas V. Mansell and Leon S. Marshall have assisted in laying plans for the project.

At the first meeting Harvey Snyder, Bellevue, was elected permanent chairman; and David Rowlands, Pittsburgh, and Donald Helmick Uniontown, were elected vice-chairmen. David Mintz Butler, was elected secretary-at-arms. Rita Hite, New Castle, and Nancy Littman, Verona, were elected secretaries.

Delegates to the convention, charged with formulating a new constitution for the commonwealth, are members of classes in government taught by Dr. Russell and Professor Mansell.

Sessions of the convention will be held in the little theater at various times this month. The gallery will be open to visitors.

Because of the low price of potatoes, many Lawrence county growers are not going to plant as much seed this year. Some farmers are taking as low as 20 cents a bushel for ungraded potatoes, as against last year's price of $1.50 for good grades. The very fact that potatoes are low this year will deter many from planting, but those who do plant are likely to get much better prices next year.

School Prom Is Being Planned

New Wilmington High School Event At Field Club May 27

OTHER NEWS OF COLLEGE TOWN

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, May 6.—The annual junior-senior prom of New Wilmington high school will be held on Monday evening, May 27, at the New Castle Field club. William Clarke, general chairman, announced today.

This function wherein the third year class bids an impressive farewell to the departing seniors, is the hiatus of the school's social calendar. A three course dinner will be served to nearly 75 students and faculty. The traditional speeches by class presidents and faculty members will feature. The remainder of the evening will be spent with dancing and cards.

CLEAN-UP DAY Clean-Up Day in the community was a huge success judging from the truck loads of assembled garbage and litter that was transported to Disposal Park by broughom workers on Saturday.

The co-operation of townspeople is heartily appreciated by local authorities. This annual day is designated primarily as service for hauling away rubbish, but it also encourages people to "tidy up" around their homes.

HAPPY HOUR SOCIETY The Happy Hour Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. L. Davidson, Lincoln street, tomorrow night, May 7.

Mrs. T. J. Fulmer, Mrs. J. H. Lewis and Mrs. W. J. Conway will assist the hostess.

Mrs. James P. Smith will lead the devotional and Mrs. C. W. Beerbower will have charge of the mission study.

Claims County Can Administer Relief Cheaper

him he was in good shape and would work if given the chance and that he had told him to go to work.

He had sent the contact man for the RWD, Mr. McDermott out to see Minteer and tell him to go to work. He said that Minteer had not gone to work, however.

Minteer was called back to the stand, and he said the reason he had not gone to work was because he had trouble with Johnson before and that he would not work under Johnson, but would do so under any other foreman.

He further stated that he had seen his card at the Employment office and that it was marked physically unfit.

Trucker Testifies

James Mutter says he is not on relief, but is registered at the state employment office as a trucker. He charged that McDermott, who hires the truckers, favors his brothers-in-law, who have had steady work.

They are Harry and Stanley Watkins. They are registered as on direct relief, he stated. They worked when no others did and even got work in the townships outside the city, Mutter claimed, although McDermott told him that truckers living in the city could not work in the townships.

He said it had been over a year since he had gotten any trucking on the RWD. He said that McDermott has told him that only those who had trucking agreements could work and only those on direct relief were eligible.

He says that Harry Watkins has purchased a new Chevrolet truck and is paying for it from the receipts of his work on the RWD. He said he bought this new truck about a year ago. He said that Stanley got lots of work, too. He owns his own truck, he stated.

Mutter stated that Nick Cavalier of Croton bought a new truck and had to be loaned a truck with dealer's plates until his own truck came to hold the job for him. He said Cavalier had bought a new Chevrolet.

He also charged that Leo Wise bought a new truck when they were putting a masonry site on the streets in New Castle. He said he was on relief and bought the new truck, a Dodge. He had worked this winter.

He said a man named Hartzell also bought a new truck and got work. Another named was Lew Pearl. He said Pearl had been working on the CWA and traded in an old truck and bought a new one to do RWD trucking. He also named a man by the name of Sarbo, whom he claimed bought a new RWD truck and got work on the CWA.

A man named Ross had bought a new International ton and a half truck, trading in an old Ford, after the CWA work started, he said.

He said he did not know anything about the kind of an agreement that is made with the truckers. He had gone down three times this winter and asked for work and was refused. He said he had been in the trucking business for ten or twelve years and got no work, while men who bought new trucks just recently had been able to get work.

Had Hauling Work

He said that some of those whom he named had also had work hauling outside of the RWD work they got. They would haul coal during the days they were not working on the RWD, and often hauled coal after they were through for the day and hauled lime and other stuff when they were off. He said they could have gotten along all right if they had not been buying new trucks, with what they got outside the RWD.

He further asserted that some of the dealers in town here were given trucking contracts and at the same time were selling trucks to people trying to get along. He said he had been told they were working out their taxes. One of them worked with dealer's plates and was fined $50. They hadn't used dealer's plates since that time.

The names of Harrison Vessella, Fred Downs and Mervin Lancaster were called, but they did not respond.

Hogue Testifies

M. B. Hogue, welfare director of the Lawrence county poor district, was next to take the stand. He has held this position since October, 1926, he said.

He said that the maximum relief load that the county had handled in 1933 was 3,439 cases, which would compare very favorably to the number being handled on direct relief right now. He said that in addition, there were 300 unemployed cases, that is people who were not able to work. At the present time, the relief would include these, he asserted.

He said the entire cost of relief to the county in 1932, the last complete year that he had figures on, was $159,364, which took care of 5,547 cases. The administrative expense was $1112 per month. That figure was for twelve employees, which number they were employing when the state took over the administration of relief.

The county doctor was included, whose salary was figured three ways, $400 for being jail physician, $400 for being county home doctor, and $700 for being the poor doctor.

The highest paid clerk received $80 per month, which ranged down to $50 per month, and a night watchman who received $30 per month.

At one time, he asserted, the county handled 5,400 cases. When the state took over relief, they were handling 3,700 cases in the county.

Gives His Ideas

He asserted it was not necessary to investigate people every month. That a complete investigation when they were taken on was sufficient.

He got co-operation from the industries, who informed him whenever a relief case went to work, and they were taken off relief.

They also checked up on whether anyone on relief was running an automobile, and if they were, they were asked to bring their plates in and not run their car. The plates were piled under his desk, he said.

No one could get relief until he had complied with this order.

In 1932, he said, the 3,547 cases which were on relief represented 17,735 individuals. The figures he gave had nothing to do with the maintenance of homes, he said.

He said they bought coal from the coal dealers. They did not pay the prevailing price, he said, but got a better price on bids. In the matter of furnishing shoes, he said food orders were given to stores in the county and that they had not dealt much with chain stores.

He said he would absolutely favor the county system over the state system. The advantages lay in that the local people knew the needs of the ones seeking relief better than anyone else. They could administer the relief at a lower cost. He said that whenever the state or federal government does things, it always costs more. Their system is too complicated, he asserted. He would eliminate a lot of the red tape.

He said a brick sewer would only last fifty or seventy-five years, while concrete would last forever. He did know of brick sewers which had lasted for a thousand years, he said.

There were others, however, which he said had only lasted twenty-five years.

He said the sewer had not been laid deep enough below Taylor street and if the street were ever paved, that the paving would rest on top of the sewer and break it down.

He said the sewer had not been laid deep enough below Taylor street and if the street were ever paved, that the paving would rest on top of the sewer and break it down.

He said a brick sewer would only last fifty or seventy-five years, while concrete would last forever. He did know of brick sewers which had lasted for a thousand years, he said.

A Mystery Job

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Newlyweds are Representative Simon Hamlin of Maine and his secretary wife.

The two were married December 15 and passed their honeymoon putting Mr. Hamlin's office in Washington into shape for the opening of congress.

Politics was the Cupid that brought the couple together. Mrs. Hamlin, the real politician in the family, campaigned for her husband-to-be. They were not, however, she protests, engaged until after election. They didn't have time.

In Washington she acts as secretary, political advisor and does the thousand and one odd jobs expected of a member of congress but not listed among his duties in the constitution.

Her political experience dates back to 1921, when she organized and became first president of the Woodrow Wilson club in Maine. That was in the dark days of the Democratic party in that state and she found the work rough going.

She says:

"Lots of our people were Democrats at heart, but didn't know it."

Mrs. Hamlin's mother, Mrs. Emily D. Field of North Windham, Me., was one of the pioneer Democratic women of the state. She brought her family up in Jeffersonian principles and, herself, named the club her daughter organized.

Big French Plane.
A Fighting Love Bird.
Power In The Earth.
Gold In The Sea.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

WHAT IS THE NEWS as the new week begins. Mrs. Calvin Coolidge has bobbed her hair, for one thing. That is news, especially to young debutantes, now letting their hair grow.

A woman should wear her hair exactly as she wants to wear it. When Mrs. Coolidge wore it long, that was right, and now that she has it bobbed THAT is right.

MISS GERTRUDE STEIN, who achieved fame by mutilating the English language amusingly, sails back to Europe calling America "violent and gentle."

The United States is gentle in prosperity, and can be violent when angry. For that reason nobody will ever know just what President Roosevelt has prevented, by pouring out billions, financial oil on troubled water.

MORE VIOLENCE the Philippines, revolutionists who want to get rid of the United States immediately and call themselves Sakalistas appeal to Japan for aid. Japan sends sending weapons, to help the revolt against the United States. Badly named Benigno Ramos, head of the Sakalista party, recently in Tokio, telling Japan how badly the United States treats the Philippines, says he got moral support and hopes for weapons that would mean "freedom."

FRANCE, constantly going ahead with flying, now possesses one exception the world's largest plane. It weighs thirty-seven tons, and will fly over the North Atlantic to this country, in nineteen hours, proving that our government has not yet learned, that oceans no longer protect us from Europe and Asia.

After flying here the big French plane will make regular trips over Africa, to South America and back. The plane, thirty feet high, has wings one hundred and sixty-two feet wide, two decks for passengers and crew, lounge room, quarters for the crew of seven, public bar, twelve de luxe cabins, two beds and a bath in each, space for 34 first-class passengers, 42 second-class passengers, total load eighty-three persons, crew included.

IMAGINE a thousand such planes coming loaded with something more dangerous than passengers, in half the 19 hours time. This slow country would not have much time to prepare for trouble. You cannot improvise a defense air fleet in one day.

The French plane was built at a cost of $1,647,500 by the French gov-

Stop Thief!

It seldom occurs to any of us that we might be a thief. But aren't we just that if we rob ourselves? And aren't we robbing ourselves if we neglect to provide for the men we will be at age 55, 60 or 65? Why not arrest yourself today and start the plan that will bring you a steady, guaranteed income, month after month, as long as you live after that age. Provident Mutual has just the warrant for such an arrest. It's known as the PROVIDENT PROVIDOR and it's one of the most popular, attractive, and comprehensive retirement income contracts available today. Look what it offers you: (1) $200 a month for life beginning at 55, 60 or 65; (2) $20,000 to your family if you die before that age; (3) $40,000 if death is due to accidental cause. Investigate the PROVIDENT PROVIDOR today! Make sure that "Stop Thief" will never apply to you.

Mrs. Earl McKnight Announces Those In Charge Of Event Tuesday

Committees for the tea to be held

Tuesday night in the senior high school for the "On to Madison Fund" were announced today by the general chairman, Mrs. Earl McKnight.

The women named will have charge of the tables at the tea and will serve after the exhibition which is being held in the school in the earlier part of the evening.

The general committee is composed of the following women: Mrs. Fred Remley, Mrs. A. T. Chamberlain, Mrs. George Fox, Mrs. Harry Galbreath, Mrs. J. Elder Bryan, Mrs. Harry Sturdevant, Mrs. L. E. Cramer, Mrs. Joseph Leyde, Mrs. Ray Horcher, Mrs. M. R. Bates, Mrs. Gilbert Colnot, Mrs. Steve Kleckner, Mrs. Orville Potter, Mrs. George Blair, Mrs. Joseph Repligole, Mrs. Chauncy Davis.

Solicitor Robert M. White presented a complete case against the Actua Life Insurance's efforts to secure almost $4,000 from the city in the opinion of Finance Director Albert Hoyland who attended the Pittsburg hearing. The company, according to Hoyland made a contract with the city for insuring relief workers in 1933 after having made a contract a ruling was made by a board at Harrisburg that the rates were retroactive for several months. This is why the city refused to pay without a fight and as attorney for the city White wielded the cudgel.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 48 hours ending May 5: 22 arrests on charges as follows: proprietors of disorderly house 1, disorderly conduct 10; drunk and disorderly 3, drunkenness 6, violation of parking ordinance 2 and suspicion 1.

Having been in Washington, D. C. at the National Rivers and Harbors congress for several days last week city council went into session at 10 a. m. eastern standard time today. Before having gone to Washington they spent two days in Pittsburgh attending the hearing and testimony in the case of the city against the Pennsylvania Power Company.

Years ago if members of council went to a distant city for any purpose whatsoever the trip was called a "junket." During the past two years the present council has made trips galore. Most of them have been to Washington, Harrisburg, Pittsburgh and cities in New York state. Relief work matters took them to Harrisburg and efforts to aid in the promotion of the proposed canal took them to Washington. Purchase of machinery and road supplies took them to other cities. Their trip to Washington last week was worthwhile as according to Pittsburgh reports interests there are opposed to the proposed Beaver to Struthers canal. There are many people here who believe that the canal would be highly beneficial to this city.

Mrs. David Nesbitt will be in charge of serving with the help of the girls from the orchestra and the economics department. Mrs. L. E. Cramer and Mrs. Steve Kleckner and committee will sell home made candy, ice cream and the like in the main hall.

Mrs. Harry Sturdevant and her committee will be in charge of the cafeteria. Tables will be placed in the gymnasium and the cafeteria for guests and it is hoped the public will respond. The profits will be added to the fund now being raised to send the winning high school orchestra to the national competition in Madison, Wis.

Human beings live on a gigantic driving wheel which is the earth, and they build their little power plants on the outside of that wheel, instead of tapping the power of the wheel itself.

A NEW KIND of gold hunting, in the waters of Alaskan seas, is planned by Capt. John C. Benson, 70 years old. Gold flakes have been found on the sandy beaches of Bering Sea. Capt. Benson believes such flakes are more plentiful off shore, and is building a rough-water boat with centrifugal pumps that will suck 8,000 cubic yards of sand into the vessel every 24 hours.

Six "amalgamators" will separate the gold from the tailings. Thus the so-called "dinosaurs" gigantic dredges, suck up the stony land near Sacramento, Cal., and extract the gold most profitably.

It has long been known that sea water contains gold in quantities inconceivable, but in a chemical shape that men have not been able to deal with.

Some day that problem may be solved. If it is, everybody will be "off the gold basis" and our gold "rabbit's foot," stored away in Washington, will be for sale cheap.

DR. WILLIAM MAYO, one of the famous and highly-honored Mayo brothers, was in New York recently, launching on top of the Chrysler Building with Mr. Byron Foy, who knows as much about automobiles as Dr. Mayo does about the human body.

Dr. Mayo, with his brother, sees more than seventy thousand patients pass through his clinic every year and says that the problem of medicine is no longer that of treating the "mass diseases," scarlet fever, measles, smallpox and yellow fever. Those diseases are well understood. Today's study is the study of individual pathological or disease idiosyncrasy. Among a hundred men, each one may have his own individual way of yielding to or opposing and conquering a disease.

WHY IT IS that one man succumbs to a disease, the other resists or is immune, and how may immunity be conferred on those that lack resistance.

Such is the present problem.

Besides their work in the Mayo Clinic, Dr. Mayo and his brother wander up and down in the world, looking for new truths and discoveries, investigating everything. To such men the world owes more than it can ever pay, which makes not the least difference to them.

HUBERT W. PHELPS DIES AT HOSPITAL

Bad Cold Is Cause Of Sudden
Death At Local Hospital
Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, May 4—Hubert W. Phelps, 61, prominent local citizen, died suddenly at the Ellwood City hospital about 10:10 last night. He had contracted a bad cold last Friday evening and when his condition became serious he was taken to the hospital Saturday morning. The cold is believed to have caused an infection of the heart which brought death.

Mr. Phelps is one of the pioneer residents of this city and his passing is mourned by friends from all walks of life. He was born in Medina, O. He had been a resident of this city for the past 30 years, during which he was affiliated with the National Tube Company, was a successful automobile dealer; and just recently he was employed at the Ellwood Company. Mr. Phelps was also a former tax collector here, and was an active member of many organizations here, among them the Elks, Knights and the Masons.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nell Phelps, one son, Morris and a daughter, Ruth, of this city and three sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Haight, of Elyria, O., Mrs. Lulu Reid of Medina, O., and Mrs. Carrie Ingram of Akron, O.

Funeral services are incomplete and will be announced later.

Playlet Enjoyed At M. E. Church

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6—An appreciative audience thoroughly enjoyed the presentation of a beautiful playlet, "The Shepherd of the East", which depicted the 23rd Psalm of the scripture as interpreted by Mrs. Amelia Wilson of New Castle.

Prof. Paul Winter played the role of the shepherd and Verne Daubenspeck as the hireling. Every word of the Psalm was illuminated in this presentation. The voice of the shepherd could be heard calling the sheep from pasture to pasture, and how these sheep became familiar to a certain voice and call and would respond to no other.

Mrs. Wilson, who spent many years with a missionary in the Holy Land, presented her playlet from an authentic background with much authority. Just before the playlet was given she gave a talk on the people and their customs in that land with the assistance of Prof. Winters and Mr. Daubenspeck, who were attired in native costumes, as was Mrs. Wilson.

Child Dies Here Sunday Afternoon

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6—The 23-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rocco Carabetta, Joseph C., passed away at their home here yesterday afternoon at 4:20. Besides his parents the deceased leaves one sister, Nancy.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday morning at 8:30 from the Italian Catholic church, with the rector, Rev. Fr. Vincent Galliano, officiating. Interment will be made in the Locust Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Berda Eadie Called By Death

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6—Mrs. Berda Eadie, 24, died at the Ellwood City hospital Saturday morning at 10 o'clock after a short illness.

She is survived by her husband, Linwood Eadie, two daughters and one son. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from the Love Hope Baptist church. Burial will be made in the Locust Grove cemetery.

India Lace Day Service Held

Many Observe Annual Event In Trinity Lutheran Church
Sunday

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6.—The annual observance of India lace day by the Women's Missionary Society of the U. L. C. A. was held in the local Trinity Lutheran church during the Sunday school hour on Sunday morning.

The feature was the presentation of a playlet, "Please Anna", which was in charge of the Young Women's Missionary Circle, with Miss Jean Hunter directing. The characters in it were Mrs. H. F. Fleischer, Helen Garmon, Sarabelle McCaslin, Esther Breneman, Audrene Scheidemantle, Jean Strohecker, Esther Patterson, Marie Christensen, Josephine Fleischer, Lillian Schenker and Gladys Melzer.

The playlet depicted the monthly visit of the missionary to the India lace school, where the natives brought their lace for the missionary to inspect. If it was well made they were paid for it. This is their means of livelihood. A liberal offering was taken up after the service, which will go to the India lace fund. A splendid life service was held in the evening.

SURPRISE HONORS RUTH SPRINGER

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6—Ruth Evelyn Springer was completely surprised on Saturday afternoon when a group of friends assembled at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Yahn, of the Ellwood-Zelienople road, to help celebrate the occasion of her seventh birthday anniversary.

The afternoon hours were passed in a merry manner with a variety of group games holding the attention of everyone. A tempting lunch was served by Miss Phyllis Jean Yahn and Miss Iva McKenna. Novel decorations adorned the birthday cake.

Included were Grace Best, Luella and Robert Klages, Wilma, Eugenie and Mary Lou Boots, Doris McKenna, Harry Klages, Mildred Galbraith and Iva McKenna, and the guest of honor, who received many fine gifts.

Volunteer Workers To Sell Poppies

Plans Underway To Hold Annual Poppy Day Here On Next Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6—Complete plans for the observance of Poppy day here on Saturday, May 11, were announced by Mrs. Wayne Baird, poppy committee chairman of the J. Wilber Randolph unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, following a special meeting of the committee. Organization of a corps of volunteer workers to carry out the distribution of the memorial poppies throughout the city was completed and leaders appointed to direct the work in the various areas.

"The American Legion Auxiliary poppies will be distributed by volunteer workers. The response to our call for volunteers has been very gratifying from both our senior and junior members, and we will be able to give everyone in the city an opportunity to wear a poppy on Poppy Day. As the workers will serve entirely without pay or commission, every penny contributed in exchange for the flowers will go for the welfare activities of the Legion and Auxiliary."

"The enthusiasm of our women for the Poppy Day project is due to the two great purposes which the little memorial flowers achieves. First, it pays tribute to those gallant young men who sacrificed their lives in defense of American ideals on the poppy-studded battle fields of France and Belgium. Second, it raises funds for the relief and rehabilitation of the living victims of the war, the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead. We are hoping that the people of Ellwood City will understand the significance of the poppy and give us their support on Poppy Day."

George Dodds in Local Hospital With Painful Injuries
Received Sunday

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6—Three local youths were injured when a car in which they were riding overturned on the Perry Highway near Leesburg. The car was driven by Arthur Howells of the fourth ward.

Warren Thorpe Jr., and George Dodds were passengers at the time.

Dodds is the more seriously injured of the three. He is in the local hospital. X-Ray pictures were being taken this morning. Dodds received a broken collar bone, bruises and lacerations about the face and arms, and suspected internal injuries.

According to information received here the accident occurred when the driver attempted to pass a big bus. Due to its size he was forced to go off the road. The rear wheel spinning in the loose dirt and mud of the berm caused the car to overturn on its side. In some manner Dodds was pinned underneath the car until passing motorists extricated him. Howells escaped with minor injuries and Thorpe received a sprained ankle. All suffered considerably from shock.

urday Afternoon

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6—Miss Mary Hemmerly, who is to be the bride of Ted Streeter sometime in June, was the guest of honor at a dessert-bridge given by Miss Abigail Cresswell on Saturday afternoon at the Kaufman hotel in Zelienople. There were 37 guests present. Out-of-town guests were J. Ellis Bell of Clairton and Miss Helen Cooper of Edgewood.

Twelve tables of bridge were in play during the day. Miss Florence Hartung and Miss Helen McNitt were presented with the high score awards at the conclusion of the games.

Later Miss Hemmerly received a shower of many lovely and useful gifts from her friends. Beautiful spring flowers were used as decorations about the place.

Sharing the event were Rita Manning, Ruth Campbell, Norma Jean and Mary Elizabeth Fligger, Clara Wiley, May McClintick, Dorothy Newton, Jacqueline Burgin, Thelma Jean and Charlotte Houk and the honor guest, who was the recipient of many fine gifts.

The little folks were kept amused with a variety of children's games and finally when all the games had been played, a tempting luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Russel Campbell. A birthday cake decorated with candles was a feature of this period.

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., May 6—Plans for a "last-ditch" fight against enactment of a general sales tax will be crystallized at the third annual convention of the Pennsylvania Retailers' Association here Thursday, May 9, officials of the organization said today.

A specific course of action, possibly including a state-wide "merchants' march" on Harrisburg if the sales tax should reach a showdown fight in the legislature, was to be adopted.

Merchants from all sections of the state were expected to attend with interest centering on a discussion of the "sales tax menace" which will be led by George H. Johnson, president of a large Philadelphia department store.

Legion Banquet Most Colorful Ever Held Here

Many Distinguished Guests
Will Be Present At Event
Thursday Evening

STATE OFFICIALS WILL FLY TO CITY

Thursday evening's banquet and program, in honor of National Commander Frank N. Belgrano of the American Legion, will be the most colorful event the Perry S. Gaston post, and posts of the 26th district, have ever held here. In fact, there will be few banquets arranged in honor of the national commander.

FRANK N. BELGRANO

anywhere in the United States which will eclipse it in size or color.

In addition to the national commander, there will be many state and national officials of the American Legion in attendance. Then there will be a large group of state officials, headed by Governor George H. Earle.

Governor Coming By Plane.

According to the present plans, Governor Earle and the seven Legioneers members of his staff, with General Edward C. Shannon, commanding general of the 28th division, Pennsylvania National Guard, will be flown here by officers of the air force of the 28th division.

The national commander has risen from the ranks of the American Legion to the highest position the organization can bestow through his interest in its affairs.

He was a charter member of Galilee post No. 236 of San Francisco, its first adjutant and later commander, during 1924 and 1925. He was commander of the Seventh California district during the following year, and at the same time served as commander of the San Francisco County Council. While state membership chairman of California in 1927-28, 7,770 new members were added to the rolls of the organization in the state.

He next served as a member of the national executive committee during the years of 1930-32. At the time of his election as national commander, he had just completed six years of service on two of the most important committees of the Legion's national organization, three years as a member of the board of directors of the Legion Publishing Corporation, acting as chairman of its finance committee, and three years on the national finance committee.

Belgrano Is Banker.

Commander Belgrano was born in San Francisco, graduated from high school there in 1916, and in 1917 enlisted and was assigned to Battery A, 144th field artillery, commanded by Peter B. Kyne, distinguished American writer. He advanced to the rank of sergeant, when he was sent to officers' training school at Camp Zachary Taylor, Louisville, Ky., where he was commissioned a second lieutenant, assigned to Battery F, 33rd field artillery, 11th division. He was honorably discharged on December 17, 1918.

After his discharge he entered the banking business, as assistant cashier of the Figazi bank in Oakland, which later consolidated with the United Bank & Trust company, and this organization later with the Bank of America National Trust & Savings association, of which he is now vice president. He is also president of the Pacific National Fire Insurance company and vice president of the Occidental Life Insurance company.

The committees in charge of the banquet have practically completed their arrangements for the big banquet and the advance ticket sale indicates that a crowd of record proportions will be in attendance.

The decorations committee asks that any organization having a large American flag on a staff, who will be willing to donate its use for the commander's banquet, call General Chairman Ivor V. Davis and leave the address where it can be seen.

Close Promoted To Field Work

Resident Engineer Here Made Field Representative For 17 Counties

Announcement was made today in the relief offices of the promotion of James A. Close, who has been resident engineer of the RWD here since June 1934. Mr. Close has been made Field Representative for the state office of the RWD, covering 17 counties in northwestern Pennsylvania.

His new work will take him from Lawrence County to Lake Erie and east to Potter county. He will be succeeded here by H. E. Bailey, who has been assistant resident engineer.

Mr. Close came to New Castle in June 1934 from his home in Elizabeth, Pa. Since then he has had charge of the engineering on all RWD projects. He has been under the chief engineer of the state forces and was never considered an employee of the local RWD.

World's Newest Big Show Is Coming Soon

The world's largest circus, traveling on three trains of double-length steel railroad cars, with 1,080 people, 5 herds of elephants, 812 menagerie animals and 500 horses will exhibit in New Castle, Wednesday, May 22, at the South Mill street grounds, and throughout this section plans are perfecting for the attendance of every man, woman and child so it seems—at one of the performances.

Everybody wishes to see the Cole Bros.-Clyde Beatty Circus this year, which recently returned from a triumphal five year tour of Europe, and it is a foregone conclusion that the world's largest tent, seating 10,000 persons, will be filled to the last chair afternoon and night. Six rings and stages and the hippodrome track to say nothing of the vast maze of the earth's foremost arena talent—four hundred acknowledged kings and queens of daring, grace, skill and incredible agility. Fifty clowns will project ten times that number of mirth waves. Countless new foreign features and innovations new to America are introduced on the gigantic program of the World's Newest Big Show this year. Clyde Beatty's gigantic trained animal exhibition will be presented in the main performance.

Throughout circus day the three gigantic tented stables of the Cole Bros.-Clyde Beatty organization will be open to the public free of charge. Here lovers of fine horses may view at random hundreds of the world's most beautiful thoroughbreds. Perfect specimens of almost every known strain will be found in the big show's great free horse fair which also includes a congress of tiny Shetland ponies to delight the little folks.

One of the largest, finest and costliest street parade will be seen at 11 a.m. Hundreds of horses, five herds of elephants and two caravans of camels from the great desert will be seen. In the picturesque line of march will be more than three

New Regulations For Securities

Securities And Exchange Commission Place New Regulations In Force
Today

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 6—"Over the counter" transactions in securities were placed under official regulation today by the securities and exchange commission as "an initial step in the program to insure to investors protection comparable to that provided in the case of organized exchanges."

Because of the tremendous volume of dealings in unlisted securities the SEC felt that strict regulation was imperative. Chairman Jos. P. Kennedy recently sent tentative rules to brokers and dealers in this type of security and requested that they submit their reaction.

While any regulation in dealings was admittedly distasteful, it is required by the law and every effort was made by the commission to cause the minimum of restrictions.

"The rules," Kennedy said, "provide for the registration with the commission of brokers and dealers, who use the mails or any instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect securities transactions on markets other than national securities exchanges."

TO MEET TONIGHT

Camp 249, Sons of Union Veterans will convene for their regular session tonight at 8 o'clock on the third floor of the city hall. As this is the last meeting before the regimental inspection of the military unit, it should prove a very important meeting.

Plans will be completed for this inspection which will be held on Wednesday, May 15 in the hall. At this time the regimental officers from Johnstown, Pa., will inspect all military units of the Sons located in New Castle.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP NO. 11

The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 11 met at 7 o'clock Friday evening in the gymnasium of Lincoln and Garfield school. They met in patrols and later in a big circle. Plans were made for a hike Saturday, May 11, and a mothers' tea Saturday, May 18.

Kathryn Boya, Angeline Coelle, Henrietta Coelle and Grace Irwin, appointed for entertainment committee; Edna Robinson and Ruth Fullwood to take care of tables.

Lillian Evans and Edna Robinson passed their darning.

At the close of the program, the girls sang "Taps."

Scribe, Ruthie Fullwood.

TROOP 6

Girl Scout Troop No. 6 opened their regular Saturday morning meeting in the city hall with a group of folk dances. After patrol corners had been held, the oldest patrol gave a folk dance to "Hol-De-Dia." Paper and pencils were distributed and an interesting knowledge game was played. A Girl Scout handbook was presented to Miss Betty Bridenbaugh. Sara Jane Cleland was a guest of the troop. The meeting was closed with "Good Night Ladies," and "Shoo-Fly."

TO MEET TONIGHT

Camp 249, Sons of Union Veterans will convene for their regular session tonight at 8 o'clock on the third floor of the city hall. As this is the last meeting before the regimental inspection of the military unit, it should prove a very important meeting.

Plans will be completed for this ago, but a prayer book left on the seat was missing.

Recently, thieves stole Mrs. Mary S. Kane's car from the same neighborhood and when it was recovered, police found Miss Tobin's prayer book.

They returned it to Mrs. Virginia McGurk of Malden, who was Miss Tobin before she married.

Soldiers of Britain have just been granted the privilege of inviting relatives to tea at the barracks.

For several years the post office departments kept in force an order permitting the mailing of material to "Householder at No. So-and-So" and many advertisers who did not go to the trouble of procuring addresses, and to the expense of having names written on envelopes, took advantage of the ruling.

The practice according to a bulletin received at the post office here will cease over all delivery routes except rural and star routes on July 1.

For Second Week Relief Rolls Shrink, Regular
Seasonal Decline
Starts

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, May 6—Pennsylvania's relief rolls shrank again the week ending April 27 when 9,034 persons were dropped, reducing the number of relief recipients to 1,729.

633, state relief director Robert L. Johnson reported today.

This was the second consecutive decrease, 4,994 persons having left the relief rolls the previous week.

"These two consecutive decreases would indicate that the regular seasonal decline of 1935 has probably started earlier than in the two previous years," Johnson said.

Total expenditures for work and direct relief were $3,684,074 or $199,078 less than the preceding week, Johnson reported.

HOMER METZ International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 6—They say the mark of the true champion is the ability to get up off the floor; to come back after the going has been tough.

Dizzy Dean for all his strutting and boasting, has that ability in great measure. The big right-hander of the St. Louis Cardinals can be hammered from the box one day, but the next afternoon he's apt to make the team that beat him look like the kindest semi-pro outfit.

Dean Fans Ruth

Up in Boston yesterday, Diz slipped in he had pitched enough sloppy games so far this season and turned on the juice against the Braves. The result he blanked Babe Ruth & Co., 7 to 0; struck out the well known assistant manager and hit a home run himself, just to make the picture complete. The Braves reached Dean for 10 hits but in the pinches he was invincible. Ruth played six innings and faced Dean three times. The first time up he walked; the second time he fanned on four pitched balls and on his last trip to the plate he grounded out weakly.

In New York, the Cincinnati Reds playing against the New York Giants came with a ghost's whiskers of beating Young Hal Schumacher for the first time in three years. A heavy downpour halted the game in the tenth inning with the score 2-2.

Vaughan Homers

Arky Vaughan's second home run in as many days ended the Pittsburgh Pirates to make it two in a row over the Dodgers at Brooklyn. The score was 9 to 2. Vaughan's homer came in the first inning off Watson Clark, who met his first defeat of the year, after three victories.

The game between the Chicago Cubs and the Philadelphia Phillies, scheduled for Philadelphia was postponed because of rain.

White Sox Win

Those astonishing Chicago White Sox continued to astonish by winning another ball game from the Washington Senators, thanks to the four hit shutout pitching of Rookie John Whitehead. The score was 4 to 0. Whitehead has started in the American League four times and has four victories to his credit. The Sox are in second place in the American League standings with 11 victories out of fifteen games played.

All other American League games were postponed yesterday.

For presenting the nation in mail week with a fourth pair of twins, Frau Busse, a farm hand's wife in Letschin, Germany, will receive a special medal from the government.

South Siders To Open Soft Ball Season Tuesday

Two games are on tap in the South Side soft ball league opening for Tuesday night at the B. & O. field, it was announced by President Frankie Ross today. The Capitols will play the Scarazos and the Audias will play the Marcellas. Al Scarazza will throw the first ball and Pete Capitolo will catch it.

The lineups of the four teams are dotted with recognized soft ball stars in New Castle. This is the first venture of the league. Games will be played Tuesday and Thursday. The league will in no way affect the city soft ball league, although many of the players are in both leagues.

The city league will play Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Church League Opens Thursday

New Castle church golfing league rained out last week in the scheduled opening of the league, will attempt to start this week at the Castle Hills course Thursday night at 6 o'clock daylight time.

There will be 12 teams in the league this year, which will mean about 75 or 80 players. The first nine at Castle Hills is now open to the public, the fences having been removed from the greens.

It is important that all members of the church league be at the Castle Hills course Thursday night. There will be a meeting of the league at the close of the evening's play, with President Jack Waddington in charge.

LITTLE CLIPPER

Among the notables at the Pittsburgh Notre Dame club banquet-meeting in the Pittsburgh A. A. last Monday night was John P. Smith, who recently arrived in the Smoky City to take over the duties as line coach at Duquesne University.

Little Clipper is now working with his old teammate, Christy Flanagan, the head coach and athletic director on the Bluff. Both Flanagan and Smith had brilliant careers as members of the Notre Dame teams of '25, '26 and '27, but the latter came mighty close to dooming his football bid for fame even before its inception.

"I was ready to take the long train ride back home shortly after arriving in South Bend," he related. "The All-American guard of 1927 was at that time only little Johnny Smith. He was one of many young high school graduates who was entering Notre Dame. He knew no one in South Bend or on the campus; the lines in which he was forced to stand for registration were numerous and lengthy.

Even before he went to his first classes, Johnny Smith was decided, but after much deliberation he decided to see it through, as a Notre Dame student and football aspirant. He concluded that to go back home would be admitting failure, so he unpacked and soon was a member of the freshman football squad.

To a colorful football star, a watch charm guard of national renown, and an All-American in his senior year, one would believe that the freshman year would be more or less obscure. To anyone but a Notre Dame student, it may be surprising that Little Clipper looks back on his first year in college, in Carroll dormitory, as the best in his collegiate career.

There is probably no life anywhere that is exactly like living in a freshman dormitory at Notre Dame. Students sleep on the third floor of the main building annex, study rooms are on the second floor, and the washrooms are on the ground floor. The lockers are in a building in the rear, which also contains the swimming pool.

Saturday night means much running around for the boys of Carroll and Brownson halls. If they wish to dress up for Sunday, they must, before retiring for the night, wear their old clothes on going over to the natatorium. There, they place the old clothes in the locker and dress up in the Sunday suit. They then return to the Carroll dormitory where they take off the suit and hop into bed.

It's a great life, and while it sounds like an unusual way of living, everyone enjoys it. You'll find that any Notre Dame graduate who has spent a year in Carroll or Brownson, cherishes the memories of that year above all others.

In discussing the football players that the Fighting Irish of '25, '26 and '27 met, both Flanagan and Smith believed that the toughest back of them all was Morley Drury, Southern California All-American of 1927. Chris Cagle, Army; Ralph Moon, Baker, Northwestern, and Morton Kaer, Southern California, were great players, they agreed, but Morley Drury rated first among the many star backs that they faced.

SEATTLE, Wash.—Who is the author of "Captain Courageous?" Dean Vernon McKenzie of the journalism department at the University of Washington, is $1 richer today because he bet a student that no half of 20 persons picked at random would know. Twenty people were halted on the street and asked the question. Only one, a Japanese girl had the correct answer.

(Note: The author of "Capains Courageous" is Rudyard Kipling.)

Legion Of Honor Match Postponed

Masonic Golfers Will Start Play Next Monday Evening At Muny Course

Because of the soggy weather conditions, the Legion of Honor golfers have postponed the opening of their season until next Monday evening, at the Municipal course.

Rain was falling this morning and the officers of the Legion of Honor Golfing Association decided to postpone the match until next week, when weather conditions should be more desirable.

Moderate Trading Sends Stock Market Into Higher Ground Today

(International News Service) NEW YORK, May 6.—The stock market worked higher today in moderate trading.

Railroad shares were uniformly strong under the leadership of Union Pacific, Atchison, New York Central, and Northern Pacific. Traders anticipated a favorable decision on the railroad pension act when the supreme court reconvenes.

Mother shares were quiet and slightly easier on profit taking and failure of General Motors to end its labor troubles. Chrysler held within a narrow range.

Johns Manville set the pace for the building shares with a gain of more than a point. American Radiator scored a smaller gain.

American Banknote was a feature in the specialties advancing fractionally to a new high for the year.

U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and other steel shares were inclined to be somewhat sluggish.

Chemicals, liquors, food, and oil shares held in a narrow range slightly above their previous closing levels.

Commodities were mixed with wheat down, while cotton rose slightly.

Thousand Messages Reach Governor Over Week End—Parents Make Pleas

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, May 6.—More than 1,000 telegrams and special delivery letters piled on Gov. Earle's desk today bore mute evidence of the frantic but vain efforts extended by friends of Robert Allen Edwards to gain him an eleventh hour respite.

After reading the flood of messages which included pleas from Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Edwards, parents of the doomed youth, and his brother, Stuart, 16, the governor declined to "interfere with the course of justice."

The elder Edwards, accompanied by an attorney, Daniel Jones, made a dash by automobile here from the Rockview penitentiary where he said farewell to his son, but failed to see the governor last night.

When they reached the executive mansion the governor was absent but a secretary informed Edwards and Jones of the executive's action.

"Well, I guess it's all over now," Edwards said, as he returned to his automobile and began the sad journey back to Wilkes-Barre.

"May I ask mercy for Robert, please?" Bobby's mother had messaged the governor.

In addition, he received another message signed by Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and Stuart. It read:

"We are appealing to your excellency in behalf of our son and brother Robert A. Edwards of Luzerne county to have you please grant our request for a reprieve or respite so we can make application for a further hearing before the pardon board."

"I have most carefully weighed the last minute pleas of the parents of Robert Allen Edwards and friends of the family as well as other persons and I have decided that I shall take no action in this matter," the governor said.

The Rotarians, in a formal resolution, lauded Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard and state police who participated in last Friday's numbers raids "for the efficient manner in which the same was conducted, and for your noteworthy effort in the cause of law enforcement in this city." The resolution, addressed to the sheriff, met unanimous approval.

A short classification talk on a technical subject, "Transformer Coolers," was the feature talk of today's meeting. The speaker was Rotarian Archibald Davis of the Shaw-Perkins Manufacturing company at West Pittsburg.

Another feature today was the formal induction of Attorney Charles H. Young and Ivor Davis as Rotarians. Mr. Young's classification will be law service and transportation and Mr. Davis' will be coal and feed. Rotarian Walter Graham of Rotary's education committee obligated them.

The club in its business session also ratified recent actions of the board of directors.

It approved the appropriation of $20 to the Y. M. C. A. and $20 to the Y. W. C. A. for underwriting the expenses of underprivileged boys and girls at the Y. M. and Y. W. camps this summer. It authorized President Robert A. Eckles to name three delegates for the Johnstown state convention scheduled soon, and appropriated $200 to send President-elect McCulloch to the Rotary International convention at Mexico City in the latter part of June.

Guests today included County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr.; the Rev. J. Ralph Neale, and John Weaver, all of New Wilmington, and Grant Waddle, formerly of this city, and now of Cambridge Springs.

OUR YESTERDAYS—
When Decoration Day Became Legal Holiday In the North, Honoring Dead of Civil War

FOLLOWING THE Civil war, the women of southern states originated a practice of decorating the graves of the war dead at a certain time each year. This practice was the start of the observance now known throughout the nation as Memorial, or Decoration day. The fact that the southern women did not restrict their attentions to the Confederate dead, but also decorated the graves of the southern soldiers killed in the south, soon struck sympathetic note in the north and came to the attention of the Grand Army of the Republic. As a result, on May 5, 1888, General John A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., ordered that May 30 of that year be designated as a day when flowers would be put on the graves of all soldiers who died in the Civil war. In the northern states May 30 is now a legal holiday, while in the south the states have similar observances on different dates. In 1888 Congress took official recognition of the day when it passed a law making May 30 a legal holiday in the District of Columbia. Although originally intended for only Civil war dead, the day now is generally used to decorate the graves of soldiers dead of other wars.

SAILOR HAT HAS A CHINESE FLAVOR

If you fancy the Oriental touch you'll like this rolled brimmed sailor with a decided Chinese flavor. It's an eggshell straw, bound with matching crepe, and not trimmed except for the coolie loop in the center of the crown. Virginia Reid is the model.

Legislators To Air Charges At Relief Hearing

Public Hearing On Relief Will Be held In Harrisburg Tuesday

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, May 6.—Legislators who believe the state's relief rolls are unnecessarily burdened with "chiselers" will have an opportunity to substantiate their charges at the first public hearing of the legislative relief investigating committee tomorrow night, it was announced today.

After a brief executive session, the committee, of which Rep. Miles Horst, Lebanon, is chairman, will hold its first public hearing tomorrow night.

Public Hearing.

At the same time the senate state government committee will hold a public hearing on the two bills of Sen. Frank J. Harris, Allegheny, revising the state relief distribution system by establishing welfare districts to receive allocations from the department of welfare.

The Horst committee has held two executive sessions at which it heard Robert L. Johnson, state relief director, and Eric H. Biddle, his predecessor in the Pinchot administration. It was believed legislators in whose districts investigations are now under way will take the stand at the first public hearing.

Legion Auxiliary Honors Mothers

Legion Auxiliary Honors Mothers At Banquet Friday Evening; Gold Star Mothers Guests

The annual Mothers' Day banquet was held by members of the American Legion Auxiliary Friday evening in the Legion home at 6:30 o'clock. The menu was served at tables nicely decorated in keeping with the occasion, and the opening prayer was offered by the Rev. Charles W. Johnstone. Mrs. Orville Potter, president of the organization, gave the welcome speech, and a special mention was made in honor of their Gold Star mothers, who shared as special guests.

A program followed the serving, in charge of Mrs. Williams Evans. The silver tenor, accompanied by Duke and Larry, artists from Youngstown, O., gave three selections entitled, "The Little Gold Locket," "Dear One," which was their own composition, and "If You Fell Like War Leave It Over There," which were well received.

Attorney Walter Braham, their guest speaker, was introduced, and he gave an appropriate address to Mother's Day. At this time the Gold Star mothers present called, including Mrs. Wehr, Mrs. C. C. McGill, Mrs. Sara Thomas, Mrs. C. Smith, Mrs. Bookwalter and Mrs. Phillips.

A reading followed, entitled "Mother" by Russell Brown; a piano selection was rendered by Dorothy Barnsley; Major Guy Wadlinger and past commander of the post, made appropriate remarks, with Albert Marrangoni giving a reading as the next feature. A playlet, "Wearing of the White Carnation" was capable enacted by Mrs. William Evans, Dorothy Wilson, Betty Cooper, Dorothy Barnsley and Elaine Potter. Eleanor Evans sang a solo "Wear a White Carnation" and Rev. Johnstone, C. C. Sweeney, the latter who is present commander of the post, and Ivor Davis, a past commander, each gave special messages. Mr. Davis also extended an invitation to those present to attend the Legion banquet May 9, at the Cathedral.

The committee in charge was comprised of Mrs. James Cooper, Mrs. J. Hilliard, Mrs. Lyle Wimer, Mrs. A. J. Barnsley and Mrs. Evans, the latter, chairlady.

Young Girl Is Fighting Death

Girl Faces Blindness If She Recovers From Beating At Hands Of Farmer

(International News Service)

VINELAND, N. J., May 6.—Near death and facing blindness if she recovers, Evelyn Derenberger, 18, a domestic, was in a hospital here while a 49-year-old Vineland farmer, her alleged jailer and assailant, was held on an attempted murder charge.

Police arrested Anthony Tuozzo, a poultry farmer, after hearing the girl's story of being assaulted and held imprisoned in Tuozzo's barn without food for five days.

Tuozzo was apprehended shortly after the girl was placed, unconscious, on the steps of a hospital by two men in a sedan. The farmer denied charges he struck Miss Derenberger after inducing her to leave her employment and live on his farm and that he had held her captive in a barn loft since last Monday.
